Jessica Brant

Accountant | Entrepreneur | Financial Educator

Jessica Brant is an accountant, business owner, and financial educator with experience in both corporate and private accounting. Originally from Atlanta, Georgia, she has called Florida home for more than 14 years. She is a graduate of the University of South Florida, where she earned her bachelor's degree in Accounting. Go Bulls!

As Founder and CEO of Brant & Associates, Jessica works with business owners, schools, nonprofits, and individuals, providing accounting, tax preparation, financial reporting, and business advisory services. She also coaches clients through budgeting, financial goal-setting, and reaching important financial milestones.

Beyond accounting, Jessica has built a small real estate portfolio and understands the importance of making financial decisions that extend beyond today. Her interest in real estate, financial education, and wealth building reflects her belief that building a legacy starts with how we manage what we already have.

Jessica also brings experience in educational leadership. As a wife and mother of three children, two boys and one girl, she understands the connection between financial decisions, family, and the future we want to create. Whether she's working with clients or speaking to an audience, her goal is to make financial conversations practical, understandable, and useful.
